SOCIAL NARRATIVE

Independent Family Visit: Early Learners

Kimbell Art Museum

I am going to visit the Kimbell Art Museum.

Inside the museum, I might see art from Africa, the Ancient Americas, Asia, and Europe.

I might need to walk up some stairs or ride an elevator to visit some of the art galleries or the auditorium.

---

There will be security guards everywhere in the museum. They are there to help people and to keep the art safe. If I get lost and can't find my family, I can tell one of the security guards.

Lots of people will stop and look at the art in the galleries. I can look at the art, too.

I will see some paintings on the walls and some sculptures on pedestals.

I can look at the art with my eyes, but I should not touch it with my hands.

I should stay at least three feet, or an arm's length, away from the art.

I can talk about the art using a quiet voice.

Some parts of the museum might be loud, and some might be quiet. Some are crowded, and some have fewer people.

If I am feeling overwhelmed, I can ask a member of the security or visitor services staff to point me to a quiet place.

I can visit Studio A in the Piano Pavilion if I would like to play, read, or relax with my family.

I can go outside to see some sculptures. I can walk through the gravel. I can look at the trees. I can look at the fountains, but I should not touch the water.

If I get hungry, my family can find something to eat at the Kimbell's Buffet Restaurant or the Pavilion Café.

If I want to shop for books and toys, I can visit the Museum Shop.

If I need a restroom in the Kahn Building, I need to go to the downstairs East Lobby.

I can find restrooms, both individual and family stalls, on both floors of the Piano Pavilion. There is a Nursing Room on the lower floor of the Piano Pavilion.

When I am ready to leave, I will go back to the entrance where I came in. If I checked my bag, I will go back to the parcel check desk to get it back.

I love visiting the Kimbell Art Museum!
