

Kimbell Art Museum

2020 Holiday Gift Guide

'Tis the season to find the perfect gift.

Visit the Museum Shop to find artful gifts for everyone on your list.

Kimbell members receive 20% off all merchandise, November 3–22. Join today at kimbellart.org.

FOR THE HOSTESS

Davistudio Fine Porcelain, $18–$195

Merging painting with the art of porcelain, each beautiful work by New York-based ceramist Mary Anne Davis and her team of women potters is unique and made of locally sourced clay with nontoxic glazes. Assorted sizes available.

FOR THE CHEF

Kimbell Cookbook, $30

Culinary connoisseurs everywhere can bring the taste of the Kimbell into their homes as Shelby Schafer, the Kimbell's first manager of food services, presents 335 of her favorite recipes.

FOR THE QUIRKY FRIEND

Artist Ducks, $12

From Sphinx Duck to PicQuacko, these individually hand-painted ducks by Yarto USA are made of phthalate-free plastic and would add class to your bath! Assorted artists are available.

FOR THE STUDENT

Artnwordz Art Lunch Bag, $25

A lunch bag that is reusable, waterproof, made of Tyvek and features art with a unique twist. Assorted images are available.

FOR THE PLANT LOVER

Expandable Vase, $8

These expandable flower vases do everything a glass vase does except collect dust, chip or break. Each vase is reusable—just add water! Assorted images are available.

FOR THE TREE TRIMMER

Kimbell Art Museum Tree Ornament, $25

This personalized Kimbell ornament is exclusively produced by David Howell & Company. It is made of solid brass, electroplated with a non-tarnishing silver finish and printed using the giclée process.

FOR ANYONE ON YOUR LIST

Kimbell Membership, starting at $75

Give the gift of art this holiday—perfect for anyone on your list. Kimbell memberships offer 12 months of free, unlimited admission, special discounts and much more.

FOR THE STYLE ICON

Susan Tinker Scarf, $100

Each silk charmeuse scarf is painted or printed in the artist's Kansas studio with the best French silk dyes.

